A STATEMENT TO THE CITIZENS OF HAYWOOD COUNTY

We may all be proud of what has been happening in Haywood County during the past few months. Haywood County continues as one of the fastest growing counties in the area. Our economy is strong and diversified; our natural resources many and varied; and our future is bright as our potentials are being realized. A new County Hospital is being built; a new County Armory is under construction; new people and jobs are daily moving into the County. There is much to be proud of.

Your County's Government is in the business of serving you, the citizens and taxpayers of Haywood County. We wish to use this report in order to introduce you to your neighbors who serve as officials and employees in County Government. We also wish to show you how your tax dollars are spent. Hopefully this information will be useful to you and will be helpful to you when you are in need of the services offered.

We urge that all citizens become informed about how their County Government operates. This is why we have prepared this report. We invite your participation in conducting your County's affairs and welcome suggestions as to how we may better serve you in the future.

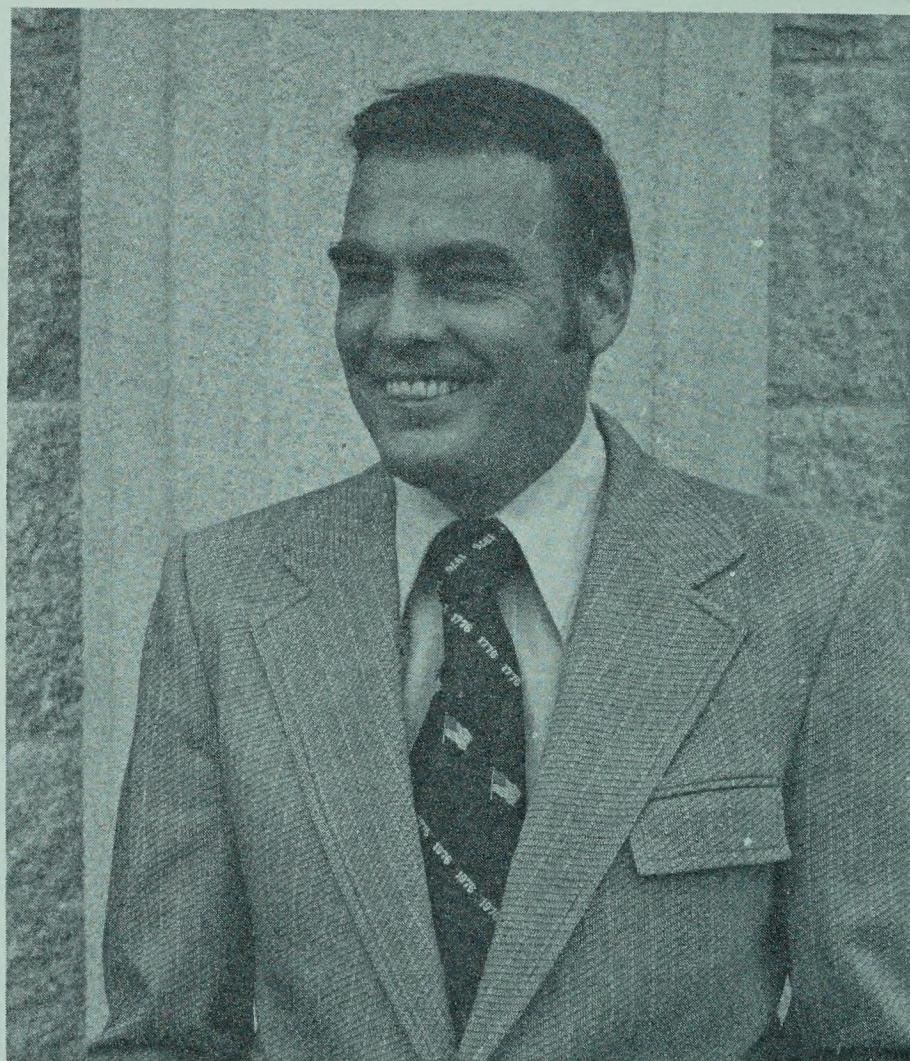

Sincerely,

Harold D. Long
Chairman and County Manager

BOARD OF COMMISSIONERS

The Haywood County Board of Commissioners is composed of three commissioners elected by the citizens to establish County policies and adopt resolutions and ordinances for the various operations of the County Government. The Chairman of the Haywood County Board of Commissioners also serves as the County Manager. The County Manager is responsible for the daily operations of county government and for implementing policies, resolutions and ordinances passed by the County Commissioners.

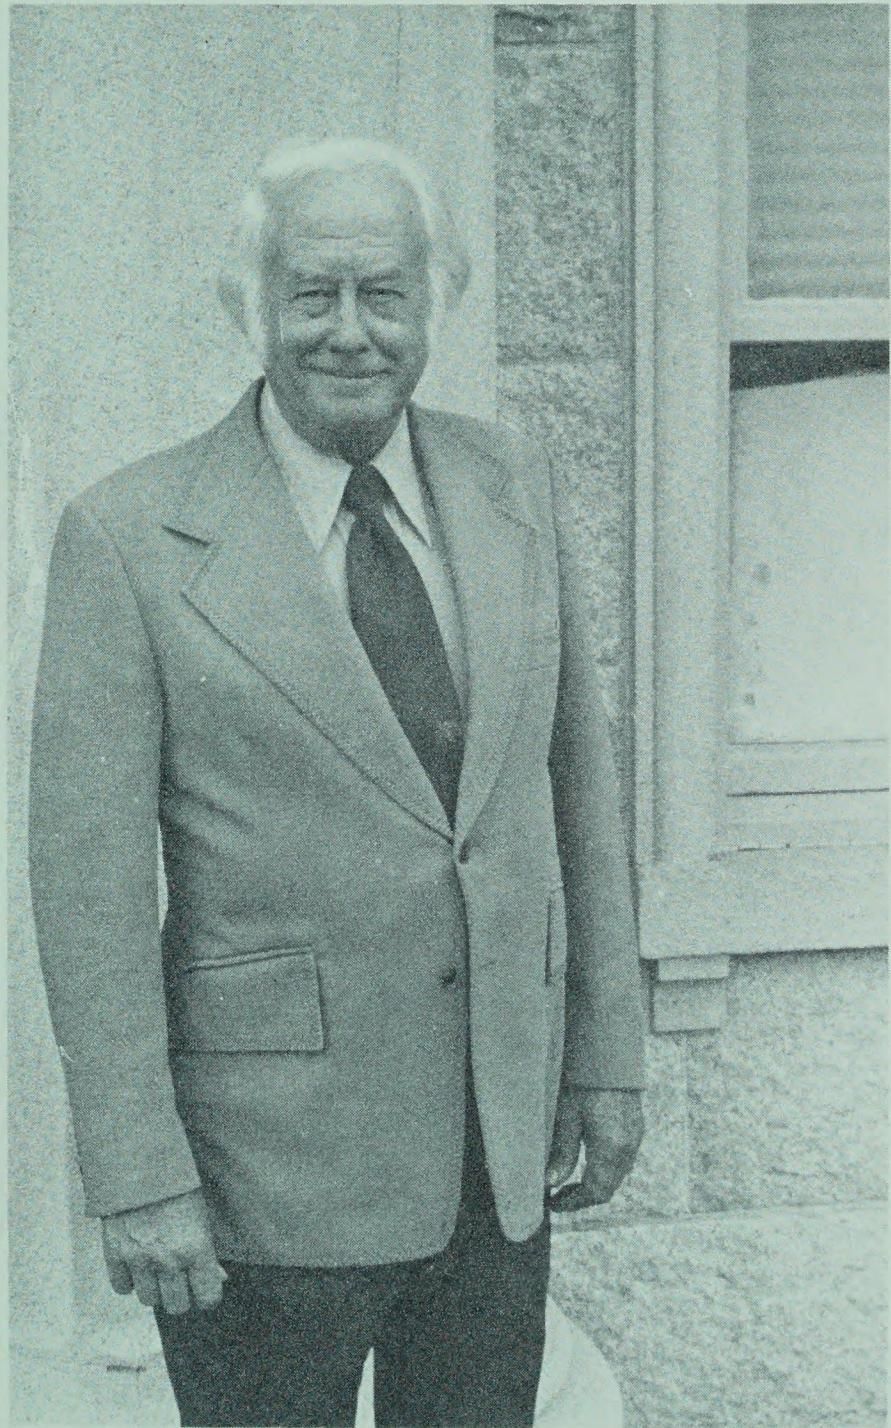

Regular meetings of the Commissioners are held on the first and third Mondays of each month at 10:00 a.m. in the Commissioners Office at the County Courthouse. All meetings are open to the public and citizens are encouraged to attend these meetings in order to view first-hand their County Government in operation.

The Service employs eleven people, although others become involved with this Department through such things as the 4-H Program.

The primary functions of the Extension Service include furnishing technical information on agricultural matters, providing leadership for developing youth programs, providing expertise on agricultural enterprises, and developing home economics programs.

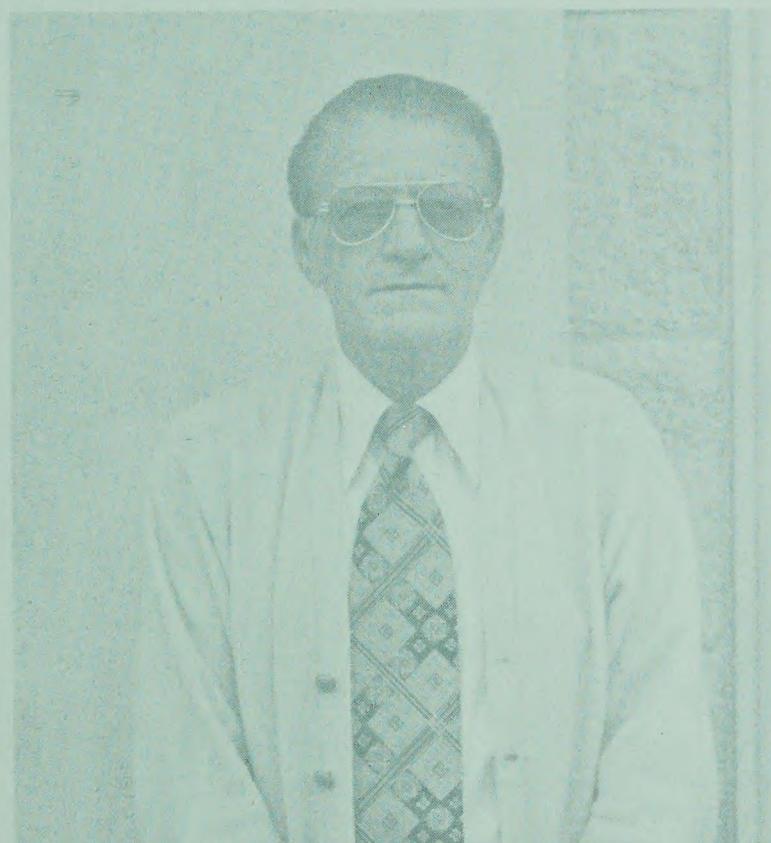

EUGENE McCALL
Extension Agent

VETERANS SERVICE OFFICER

Mr. Charles D. Lance, Veterans Service Officer, provides a variety of services to veterans and their dependents in Haywood County. These services include assistance in establishing eligibility for Veterans Administration benefits such as pensions, hospitalization, education and other forms of compensation.

The Veterans Service Officer is located in the Courthouse (Room 108) on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday from 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. On Thursday and Friday, Mr. Lance is located in the court room of the Municipal Building in Canton from 9:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. After hours visits are provided for those who cannot come to one of these locations.

This office was established by the County Commissioners to assist veterans and their dependents. The office received $6,439.11 from the County during fiscal year 1976-77 and $1,000.00 from the State of North Carolina, Division of Veterans Affairs.

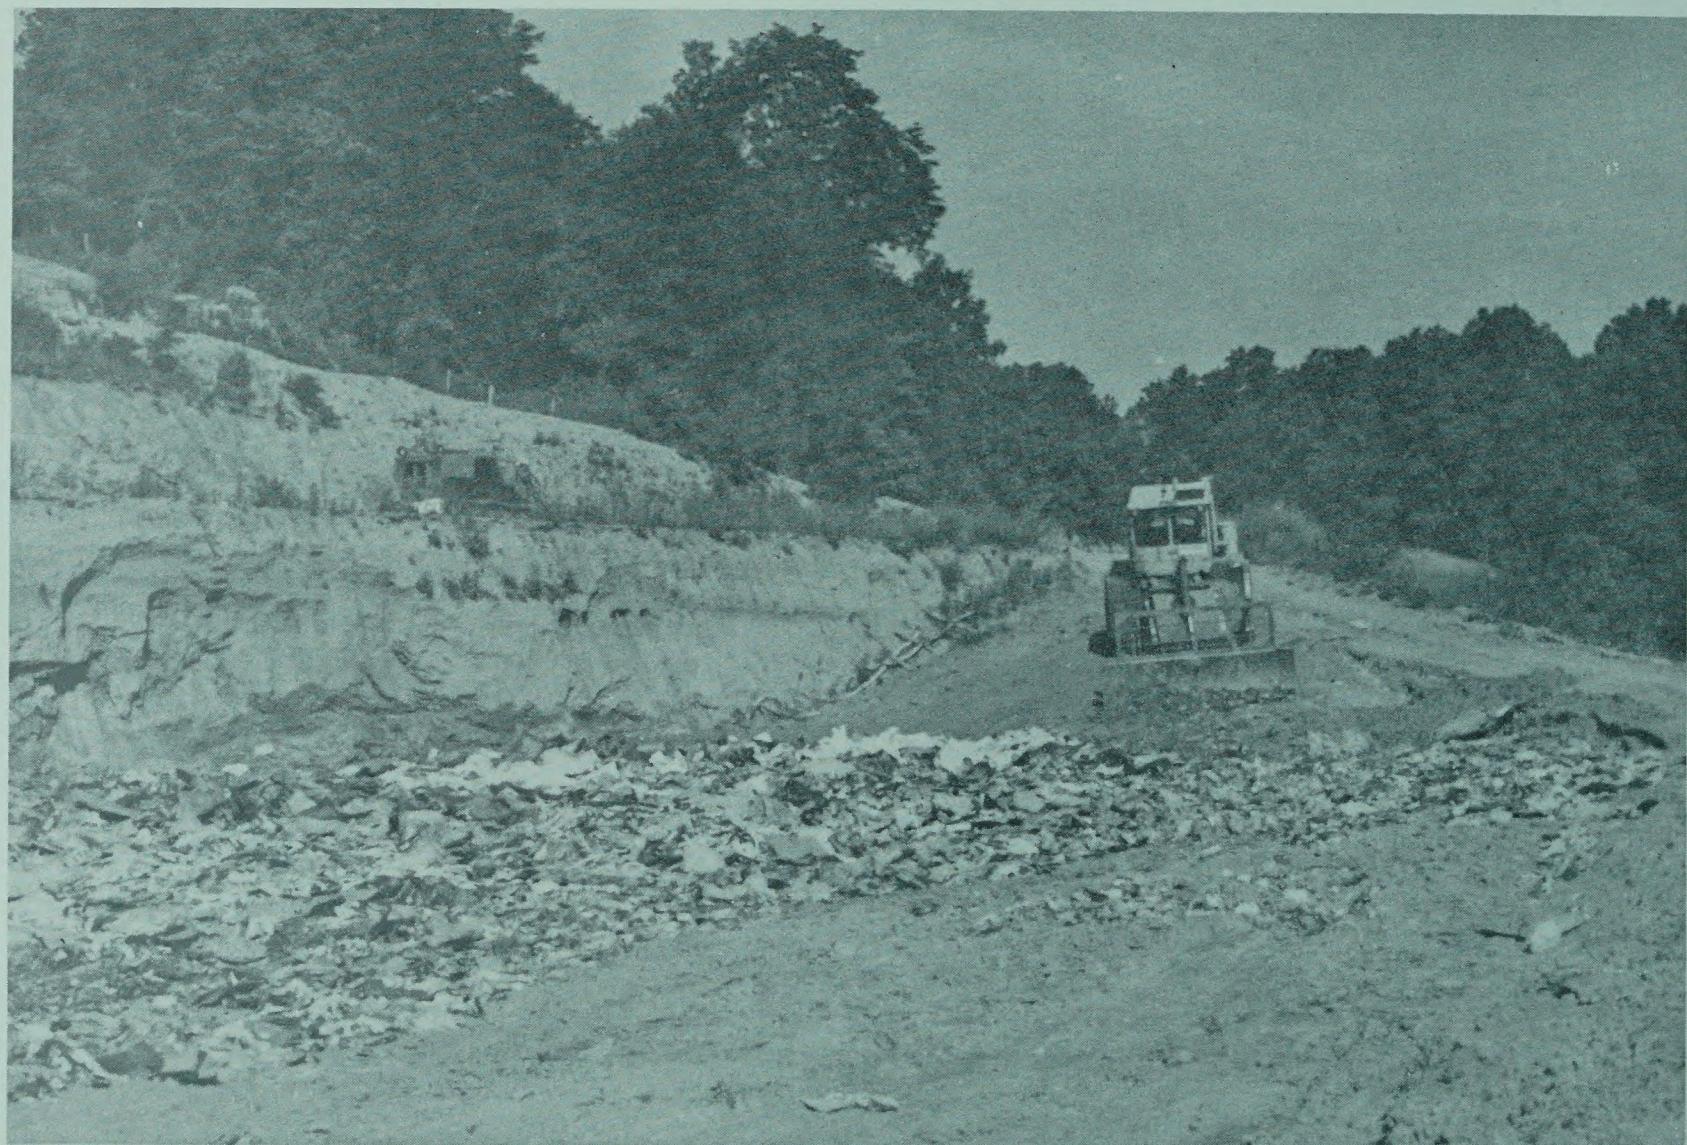

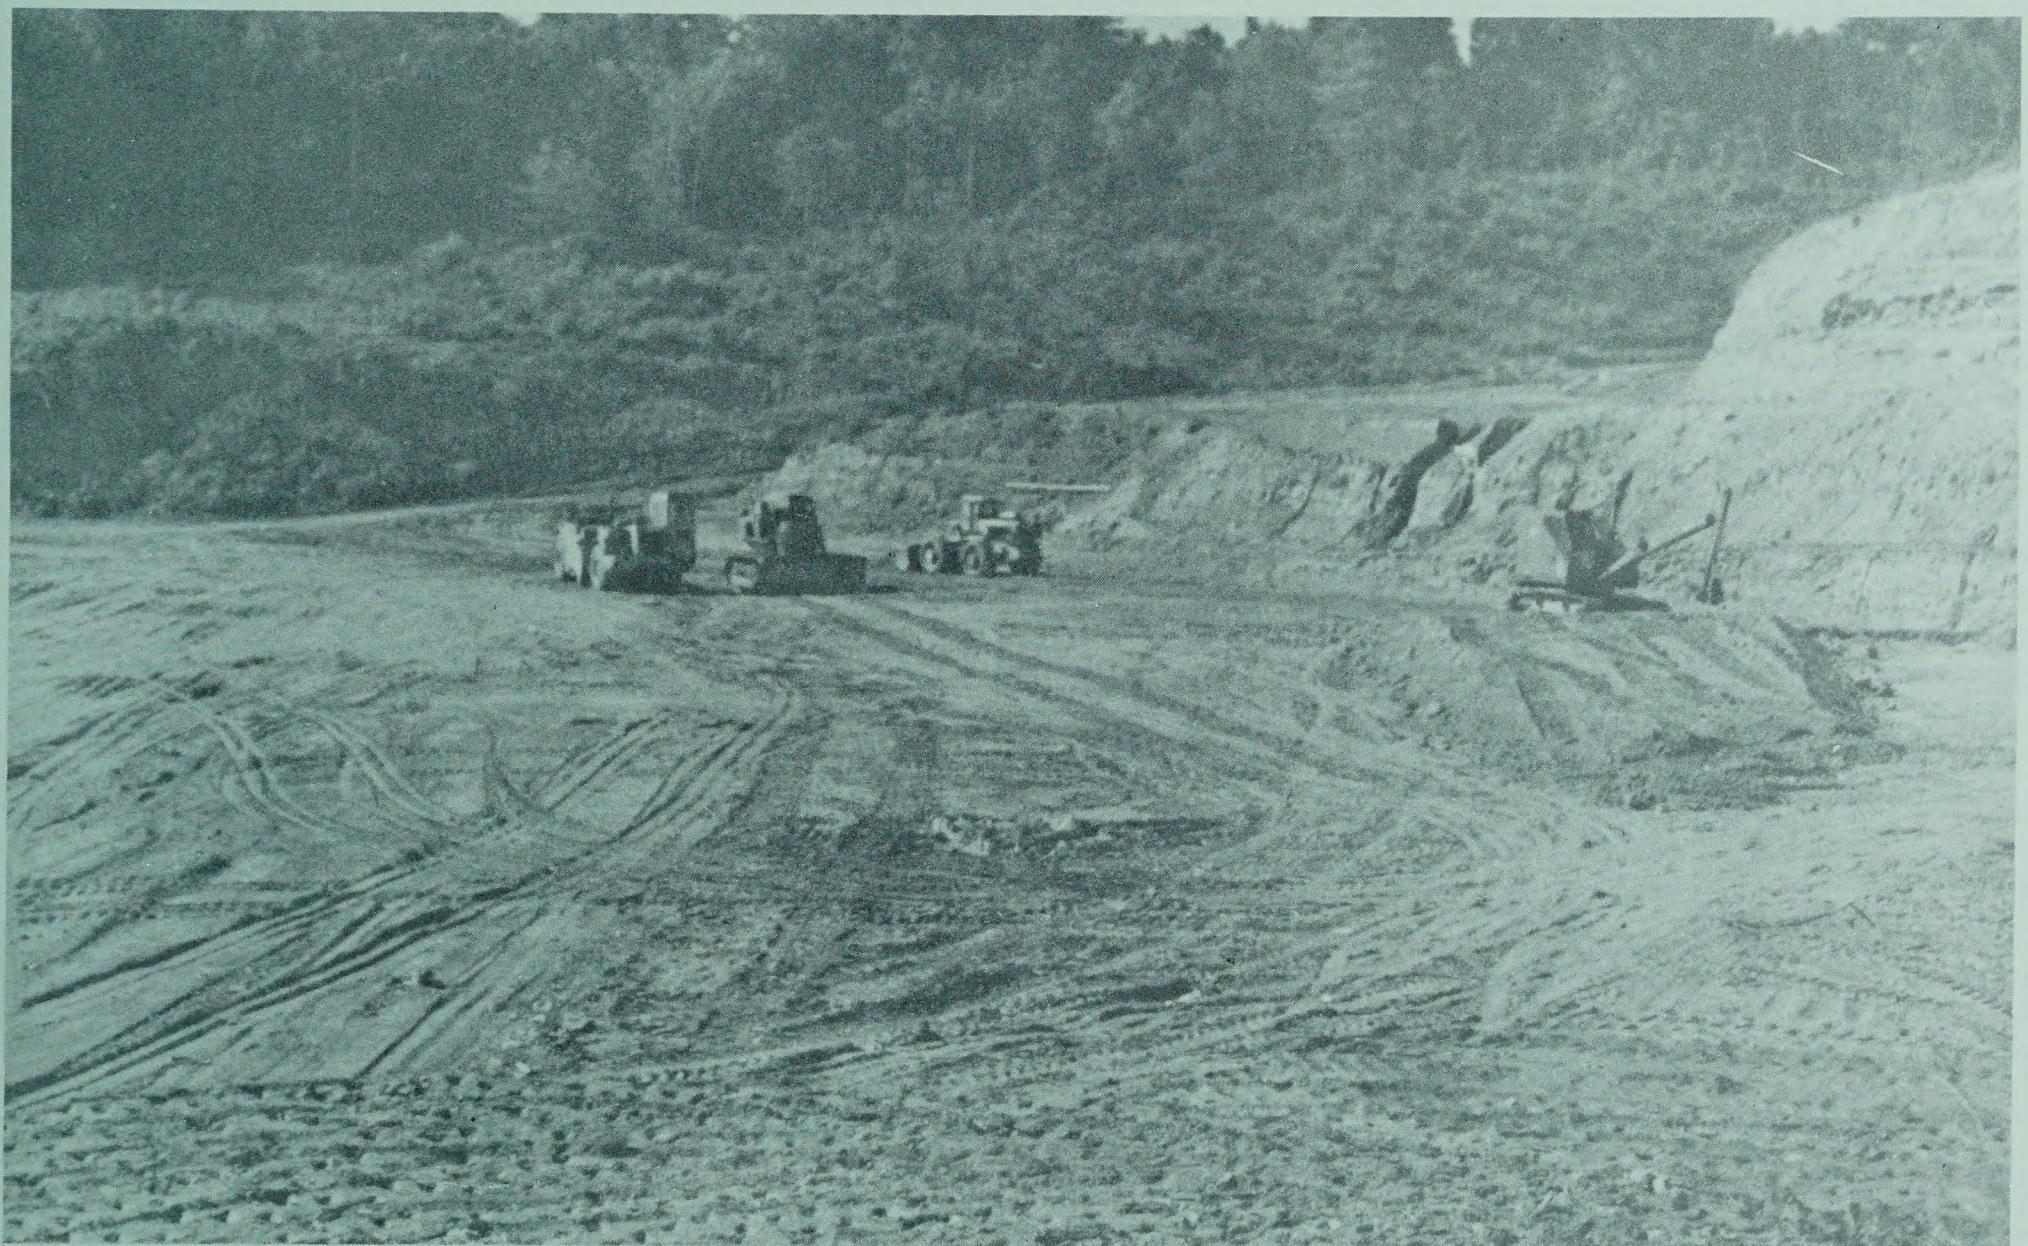

CHARLES D. LANCE
Veterans Service Officer

SOLID WASTE AND MAINTENANCE

There are one hundred seventeen trash receptacles or "Green Boxes" distributed at strategic locations through the County. These receptacles are emptied on a regularly scheduled basis by the ten County employees who use four County-owned trucks. Trash is taken to the County landfill which is located off the Old Asheville Highway outside of Waynesville. The landfill is open for dumping from 6:00 a.m. until 4:00 p.m. Monday through Friday and from 6:00 a.m. until 11:00 a.m. on Saturday.

The landfill operation was budgeted $116,581.00 in County funds during fiscal year 1976-77. This amount, along with County expenditures for maintenance of its fleet of vehicles, was 1.98 percent of County expenses during budget year 1976-77. The maintenance operation is located in Hazelwood and is charged with taking care of all County-owned equipment.

RECREATION AND LEISURE SERVICES

The newest department within the Haywood County government is the Department of Recreation and Leisure Services. This Department is headed by Mr. David R. Leatherwood whose office is located in the County Health Department Building on the Old Asheville Road just outside of Waynesville. Office hours are from 8:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Monday through Friday. The primary function of the Department is to provide recreational opportunities to all citizens on a County-wide basis. Mr. Leatherwood operated in cooperation with the Waynesville and Canton Recreation Departments, but the County Department is a separate organization designed to more equitably distribute recreational opportunities in the County.

DAVID R. LEATHERWOOD
Department Head

COUNTY LIBRARY

The County Library System consists of a Main Library at 402 South Haywood Street in Waynesville, a branch facility at 36 Park Street in Canton, a bookmobile and nine libraries in Fines Creek, Maggie, Crabtree, Cruso and Bethel. The head of this library system is Katherine Armitage whose office is at the Main Library in Waynesville. ## HAYWOOD TECHNICAL INSTITUTE

Haywood Technical Institute is supported by the Board of Commissioners, the North Carolina Department of Community Colleges and the North Carolina Board of Nursing. The Institute's objectives are as follows:

1. To provide relatively inexpensive, nearby educational opportunities.
2. To provide technical programs preparing students for employment in industry, agriculture, business and service occupations.
3. To provide vocational programs preparing students for employment in specific occupations.
4. To provide programs in basic or continuing education for adults to meet vocational, industrial, general and service needs of the community.

HTI received $245,000.00 in County funds during budget year 1976-77. It is governed by a Board of Trustees made up of citizens of Haywood County. Mr. Joe Nanney is the President of HTI while Mr. Ben T. Price is the Business Manager. The staff of HTI consists of approximately eighty-eight people and is fully accredited by the North Carolina Department of Community Colleges and by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools.

FIRE MARSHALL

Mr. Noland Palmer serves as the County Fire Marshall. At present, this is not a full-time position as Mr. Palmer also serves as a tax appraiser in the Tax Supervisor's Office. The Fire Marshall's duties rest primarily in advising the County Commissioners and in supporting efforts to expand or enhance fire protection in the County.

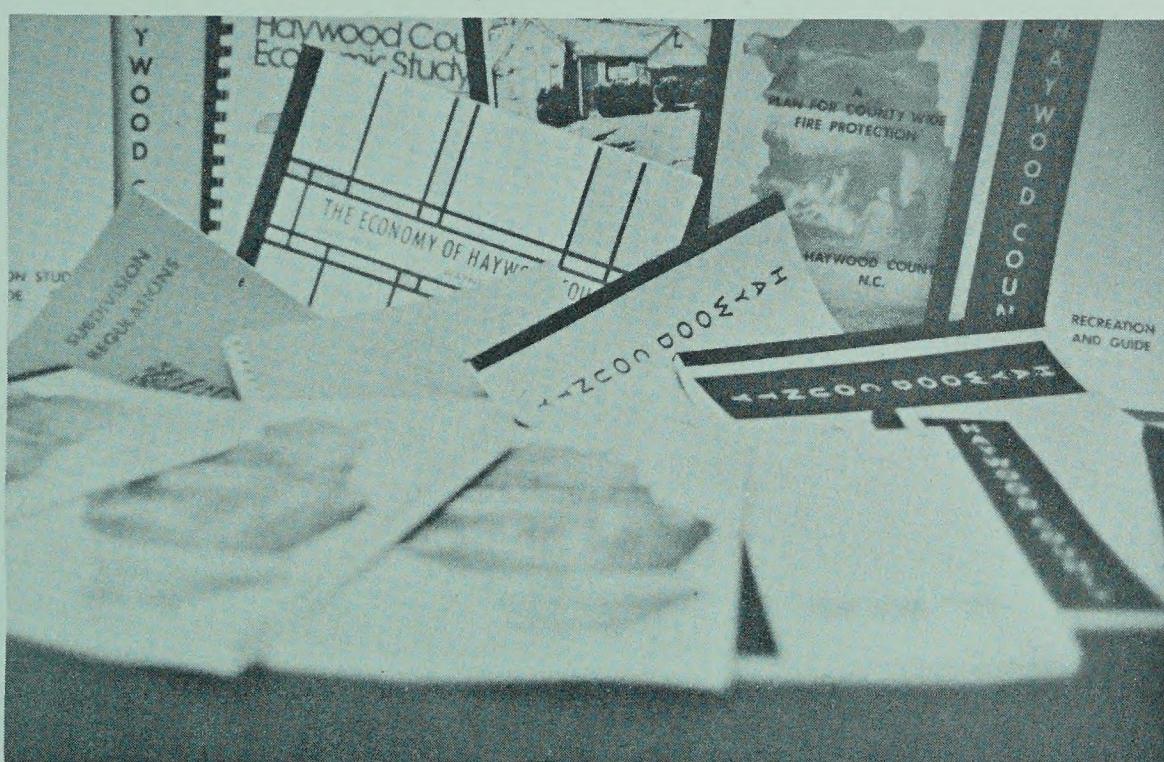

NOLAND PALMER

COUNTY PLANNER

Mary Henigbaum is the Haywood County Planner. One of her primary functions is to seek grants from Regional, State or Federal sources for the support of County projects. Additionally, she supports the County Commissioners by coordinating regional projects and by providing expertise in the formulation of County programs.

MARY HENIGBAUM
Planner

CIVIL PREPAREDNESS

Mr. James W. Reed, Jr. is the coordinator for Civil Preparedness in Haywood County. His office is in the Courthouse and is open twenty hours each week. This office is staffed by the Coordinator and one paid Secretary. Their telephone number is 456-8571.

The duties of this office are to provide safety information and to provide direction to County-wide efforts in time of natural disasters, man-made disasters or other threats to the safety and welfare of the citizens of Haywood County.
